

The 1st
ULTRA SOUND
Village Festival
@ The Demarest Terminal

Experience an afternoon
with sound installations,
interactive visuals, sounds
and live music with REFLEX ensemble & honored guests.

Coordinated and directed by interdisciplinary artist and internationally renowned composer Keren Rosenbaum

Demarest's first inter-disciplinary community music event, explores new methods of communication in the arts. Drumming performances, a sound installation at the Demarest village gazebo, the local high-school band students (conductor J. Harris) performing a unique and experimental march to the firehouse with town crossing guards, interactive sound and visual games in the village train station, and a program of improvised music and visuals directed by Ms. Rosenbaum. Information: www.KerenRosenbaum.org

Kids and adults are all invited to join and bring your own instruments.

Participating:

Electronic music trio Atom3 featuring drummer/composer Joe Pignato www.atom3.us; Amsterdam's Kulter Gallery, artist Julie Dassaud www.julisso.org; Dress band leading guitarist singer Bjorn Uyens; Theresa Saure, Notations21 Project; Bob Akerman & Pam Purvis; Yael Kanarek interdisciplinary artist; Daphna Naftali and Hans Tammen, Sarit Dayan, Gal Gabriel, Reenat Pinchas and many more.

Made possible with the support of the borough of Demarest, NJ & Notations21.net

Saturday
May 5 at 5-7PM
Train Station
Demarest NJ

FREE ADMISSION